Key Insights

- 1.Blender is the highest selling product with almost 2x the sales of the next best selling product.
- 2.There was an unusual spike in sales on the month of February, this is worth looking into.
- 3.Home products generate the most revenue, this is largely due to the sales of blenders and lamps with both making up half of the revenue.
- 4.Customers prefer to pay in person, this is very common in e commerce.
- 5.1/4 of orders placed gets cancelled, this is worth looking into.
